Each subsequent Schedule shall be substantially in the form of Schedule "C" attached hereto and made a part hereof. Such services shall be provided in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between terms and conditions of this Agreement and the terms and conditions of any Schedule, the terms of the Schedule shall govern.

1.2 The scope of the COMPANY's work effort must be coordinated with the appropriate personnel designated by CLIENT and shall at all times be subject to the parameters established by CLIENT from time to time.

1.3 Ownership of, title to and all rights in and to any Programs, Source Code, or Trade Secrets resulting from COMPANY'S technical assistance, products, consulting, and/or related services hereunder, including copyright and any other proprietary right, shall at all times remain with CLIENT. All ideas, concepts, methods, know-how and techniques resulting in any Programs, Source Code, or Trade Secrets under this Agreement shall remain the sole property of CLIENT. However, any proprietary tools that have been developed by COMPANY in order to assist in the completion of tasks for CLIENT are the sole property of COMPANY. Although in retaining its supply of personnel COMPANY may contract with independent vendors and/or it may hire personnel directly onto the COMPANY payroll, for the purposes of this Agreement, all such personnel shall be deemed to be employees of the COMPANY. COMPANY shall be solely responsible for the payment of compensation to COMPANY personnel assigned to perform services hereunder. CLIENT shall not be responsible for any payments or for withholding income taxes or social security taxes or for any insurance premiums for any COMPANY employee, including worker's compensation insurance.

COMPANY will not disclose any Confidential Information to any third party or use any Confidential Information for any purpose except to perform its obligations under this Agreement. COMPANY shall restrict access to Confidential Information to those employees necessary to carry out its obligations hereunder, and shall cause its employees to use the same care and discretion with respect to CLIENT's Confidential Information that they use with respect to COMPANY's Confidential Information, but in no event less than reasonable care and discretion. COMPANY recognizes and acknowledges that a breach by it of any covenants or agreements contained in this Section, regarding the Confidential Information described in this Section, may cause CLIENT to sustain damage for which it may not have an adequate remedy at law for money damages, and therefore COMPANY agrees that in the event of any such breach CLIENT shall be entitled to seek the remedy of specific performance of such covenants and agreements and injunctive and other equitable relief in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled, at law or in equity. As a result of the analysis that ACG will perform, the following documents will be generated, discussed, and approved by ALFA management representatives:

For data stores that contain historical data, a recommendation/decision will be determined that defines the portion of the history that will be converted. One large spreadsheet will be created containing this information.
- 2) A list of all important source data tables and files within the Ingenium system, a recommendation/decision on which tables/files need to be populated in the conversion, and which ALFA's systems files will be used to populate those Ingenium tables/files. One large spreadsheet will be created containing this information.

ATTACHMENT A TO THE FIXED PRICE AGREEMENT

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Advantage Consulting Group, Inc. ("Advantage"), in the course of performing its obligations under this Agreement, may receive, obtain or have access to Confidential Information. Confidential Information refers to any and all information about Alfa's customers or other information which Alfa specifically designates as confidential and/or proprietary. Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to, non-public personal financial information which includes personally identifiable financial information and any list, description or other grouping of customers, and publicly available information pertaining to them, that is derived using any personally identifiable financial information that is not publicly available. Personally identifiable financial information is any information a customer provides to Alfa to obtain a financial product or service, information Alfa otherwise obtains about a customer in connection with providing a financial product or service to that customer, and any information about a customer resulting from any transaction involving a financial product or service between Alfa and a customer. Personally identifiable financial information includes a customer's name, address, zip code, email address, phone number, credit history, social security number, date of birth and any other information that itself identifies, or when tied to the above information, may identify a customer.

Advantage shall receive and hold such Confidential Information in strict confidence and shall not disclose to any other party or use the Confidential Information other than as necessary to carry out its obligations under this Agreement or with the prior written consent of Alfa, except as otherwise required by applicable federal or state law. Advantage shall restrict access to Customer Information to those employees necessary to carry out its obligations hereunder. Advantage will take reasonable precautions to ensure compliance with this section in the course of performing its obligations under this Agreement with respect to the authorized use, protection, and security of the Confidential Information. In the event Advantage is requested or required (by oral question or request for information or documents in any legal proceeding, interrogatory, subpoena, civil investigative demand, or similar process) to disclose any Confidential Information, Advantage shall notify Alfa immediately of the request or requirement so that Alfa may seek an appropriate protective order or waive compliance with the provisions of this section. If, in the absence of a protective order or the receipt of a waiver hereunder, Advantage is, on the advice of counsel, compelled to disclose any Confidential Information to any tribunal or else stand liable for contempt, Advantage may disclose the Confidential Information to the tribunal; provided, however, in disclosing such information, Advantage shall use all necessary efforts to obtain, at the reasonable request of Alfa, an order or other assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to such portion of the Confidential Information required to be disclosed as Alfa shall designate.

Advantage recognizes and acknowledges that a breach by it of any covenants or agreements contained in this section shall cause Alfa to sustain damage for which it may not have an adequate remedy at law for money damages, and therefore Advantage agrees that in the event of any such breach Alfa shall be entitled to the remedy of specific performance of such covenants and agreements and injunctive and other equitable relief in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled, at law or in equity. In addition to all other remedies available to Alfa at law or in equity, Advantage hereby indemnifies and agrees to defend and hold Alfa harmless from and against any and all fines, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, causes of action, losses, liabilities, damages, costs, charges and/or expenses of any kind or nature (including, without limitation, legal and attorneys' fees and expenses, and all other costs and expenses incurred in investigating, preparing for or defending any proceeding, commenced or threatened, incident to the foregoing or to the enforcement of this section) arising out of or otherwise relating to or connected with Advantage's obligations under this Non-Disclosure Agreement. Advantage's obligations under this Agreement shall survive the completion of its obligations under the Fixed Price Agreement and the termination or cancellation of the Fixed Price Agreement, for any reason and shall not be subject to any limitation of damages provision contained elsewhere.

Services to be Performed: Data conversion services, including analysis, documentation, issue resolution, programming and testing.

COMPANY acknowledges that ownership of, title to and all rights in and to any Programs, Source Code or Trade Secrets resulting from COMPANY'S technical assistance, products, consulting, and/or related services hereunder, including copyright and any other proprietary right, shall at all times remain with CLIENT. All ideas, concepts, methods, know-how and techniques resulting in any Programs, Source Code or Trade Secrets under this Agreement shall remain the sole property of CLIENT.

Scope of Services:

These systems include a CFO based mainframe system, AS400 systems, an LFPS system, rate tables and an underwriting system, hereafter referred to as ALFA's systems. These policies will be converted into the INGENIUM v6.3.1 software package.

ADVANTAGE Consulting Group, Inc. (ADVANTAGE) will convert all necessary policy data from ALFA's systems to Ingenium v6.3.1 to maintain the integrity and accuracy of all policy data required to have and maintain historical policy information on all policies converted. It is understood that ADVANTAGE Consulting Group, Inc. (ADVANTAGE) will not convert all of the data in ALFA's systems into the Ingenium system. ADVANTAGE will assist ALFA in manually converting A&H policies, Cancer policies, Group Life policies, and Annuities (See Attached Schedule D).

It is also understood that ADVANTAGE will not perform any software modifications in the Ingenium v6.3.1 system in order to support product or processing features related to the converted policies. Therefore, ADVANTAGE cannot be held responsible if there are any problems that are not a direct or indirect result of errors made in the data conversion routines. In addition, it is ALFA's responsibility to fully test all converted data, and inform ADVANTAGE of any problems encountered, at least four weeks prior to the actual conversion date.

In order to clearly define the exact tasks that ADVANTAGE will be responsible for performing under this Schedule B agreement, the tasks are listed in the attached Schedule B.4 ALFA LIFE DATA CONVERSION TASKS FOR CFO POLICIES ONLY spreadsheet along with Schedules B.1, B.2, B.3 detailed spreadsheets. If ALFA desires to have ADVANTAGE perform any extra tasks outside of this spreadsheet, there would be additional fees invoiced over the agreed upon fixed price amount.

After the conversion has taken place, ADVANTAGE will remain on this project for a period of four weeks through the end of a month-end closeout, to resolve any post-conversion problems encountered, and to document and organize all information related to the data conversion. After this four-week period, if any post-conversion problems are not resolved, ADVANTAGE will remain on the project for an additional 2 weeks to resolve those problems, at no cost. After all post-conversion problems are resolved, ADVANTAGE will turn over all information regarding the conversion to ALFA and ADVANTAGE's assignments and responsibilities are concluded.

During the course of the project, if the Project End Date is changed to a date later than September 2, 2003, ADVANTAGE reserves the right to invoice additional fees over the agreed upon fixed price amount. The nature and amount of these fees will be jointly determined if this occurs. ADVANTAGE will not have the right to charge additional fees over the agreed upon fixed price amount if the Project End Date is changed due to actions and/or inactions on the part of ADVANTAGE, and/or if the delay is due to causes beyond CLIENT'S reasonable control and without CLIENT'S fault, which could not have been foreseen, or if reasonably foreseen, could not have been prevented.
